The Baby Boomers: 76 million strong, born between World War II and Vietnam, shaped by dramatic economic and historic social change. With the last of the boomers now turning fifty, this companion volume to the PBS American Masters documentary captures the unique insights and shared perspectives of nineteen individuals, one from each boomer year, who, collectively, represent the generation that grew up believing they could change the world...and did.

In The Boomer List, acclaimed photographer Timothy Greenfield-Sanders presents a wide-ranging group of remarkable boomers, one born in each year of the generation (1946 to 1964). These movers and shakers share personal stories that are introspective, enlightening, intimate, empowering, humorous, and provocative.
