Touched With Fire: Manic-Depressive Illness and the Artistic Temperament (Chinese Edition) Kay Redfield Jamison

This book is about Bipolar disorder and the relationship between Bipolar disorder, artistic temperament and imagination. By collecting and sorting out the notes and biographies of many excellent artists since the ancient times, the author finds that many artists suffer from Bipolar disorder. By quoting the readme of the artists, introducing the research data and charts of a great number of scientists, and combining them with specific analyses of individual cases, the book reveals the secret on the relationship between Bipolar disorder and creativity in a clear and easy to understand way.
