What Can I Do Today?: to make this world a happier place Allison Stoutland

A child's lemonade stand sets off a chain-reaction of kind deeds. From the neighborhood to the classroom, at work and at play, it's the little things we do that have the biggest effect on others. Come along as this chain of unassuming actions makes its way from the neighborhood into the community and beyond, "happening" hearts along the way. What Can I Do Today? reminds children and adults alike to look for opportunities each day to make this world a happier place, one kind deed at a time!
