They say love can be found anywhere, anytime, and when you least expect it.

Lucy Terrell is single and dateless for the longest time, well, since she's been in university. She sees herself as the shy, awkward and anti-social type. She's ready to meet her Mr Right, and believes in romance and happy endings. She ventures out to try online chatting, and for once, it's not as easy as she thinks.

Then chatting with a guy as he calls himself mystery_man, everything seems too good to be true. What lies ahead is a decision she will face. Is he really worth it?

Ryan Falls aka Rye, as his friends call him, was once a man-whore and hardcore partygoer, a secret he is bound to keep. He tries to succumb to the realisation that he must part with his old ways. Rye seeks a new turning point at finding the one - through the Internet. Will he be able to hold down the girl that has him intrigued?

The connection between Lucy and her mystery man begins to unravel. The once anonymity of their so-called "online relationship" becomes intimately overlooked when they realise how closely connected they really are. Will this "online relationship" stand in the real world or will it be over before it has begun?
