Staff Sergeant Liam McGregor doesn't know what hit him. Sent home to recuperate from an IED blast, Liam is stuck in a wheelchair and is sentenced to surgery and physical therapy before he can walk again. A physical therapist, Abby Worth has loved Liam McGregor since she first noticed boys. It's too bad he's her brother's best friend. She has always been firmly put in the baby sister zone no matter how hard she tried to catch his eye. Liam sees Abby and when she goes home with him doesn't know how he can keep his hands off of her. She's now old enough to touch and the fire in his blood and the combination of pain killers make him lose control. Abby can't help but take what she's always wanted. Together they have to overcome their fear of being left behind to grab what they have always wanted-each other.
