Jack London On The Road Jack London

Jack joined Kelly's Industrial Army at Oakland, CA in 1894 and headed for Washington, D.C.; he wrote of his experiences on the road. He recorded his thinking while America was changing dramatically as it headed into the 20th Century. As the Army entered Washington it had over 10,000 marchers with people joining the march as they went along. A fantastic account of one of the many great actions of the labor movement in American history. A Collector's Edition.
