What a Fish Knows: The Inner Lives of Our Underwater Cousins Jonathan Balcombe

An underwater exploration that overturns myths about fishes and reveals their complex lives, from tool use to social behavior

There are more than thirty thousand species of fish--more than all mammals, birds, reptiles, and amphibians combined. But for all their breathtaking diversity and beauty, we rarely consider how fish think, feel, and behave. In What a Fish Knows, the ethologist Jonathan Balcombe takes us under the sea and to the other side of the aquarium glass to reveal what fishes can do, how they do it, and why. Introducing the latest revelations in animal behavior and biology, Balcombe upends our assumptions about fish, exposing them not as unfeeling, dead-eyed creatures but as sentient, aware, social--even Machiavellian. They conduct elaborate courtship rituals and develop lifelong bonds with shoal-mates. They also plan, hunt cooperatively, use tools, punish wrongdoers, curry favor, and deceive one another. Fish possess sophisticated senses that rival our own. The reef-dwelling damselfish identifies its brethren by face patterns visible only in ultraviolet light, and some species communicate among themselves in murky waters using electric signals. Highlighting these breakthrough discoveries and others from his own encounters with fish, Balcombe inspires a more enlightened appraisal of marine life.

An illuminating journey into the world of underwater science, What a Fish Knows will forever change your view of our aquatic cousins--your pet goldfish included.

For example Naruto or Private investigator Conan you can read and believe that you are the character on there. Therefore not at all of book are generally make you bored, any it makes you feel happy, fun and loosen up. Try to choose the best book in your case and try to like reading in which.

Erika Yoon:

As a university student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher requested them to go to the library or even make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just very little students that has reading's heart or real their interest. They just do what the instructor want, like asked to go to the library. They go to there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring along with can't see colorful pictures on there. Yeah, it is to be complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this period of time, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore this What a Fish Knows: The Inner Lives of Our Underwater Cousins can make you really feel more interested to read.
