"The Night John Lennon Died...so did John Doe" is the ER Administrator's baptism by fire when John Lennon's bloodied body is carried into Roosevelt Hospital ER over the shoulder of a policeman. Moments later, in the next room there is the suspicious death of an elderly John Doe. As the old man's frail body is placed next to Lennon's in the morgue van, Annie believes her involvement in these two senseless deaths is over. It is just beginning...
