This book is a tribute to a magnificent human being who was taken from us at age 61 just as she was about to achieve her life-long goal of becoming a fiction writer. She was enrolled in a Master of Writing program at Rowan University and on the verge of graduation. Her professors decided she had earned her degree and conferred her with a Master of Writing shortly before her death. This is her collected works - both the writings she created for her Master's degree plus a collection of poems she copyrighted and published when she was just 16. Even if you never met Myra, you will be charmed and fascinated by her imagination and wonderful master of the English language.
