Resurrection, Vol. 1 Marc Guggenheim

There is life on other planets. They invaded ours. Pillaging Earth for a decade. Then they vanished without explanation.

THE END WAS ONLY THE BEGINNING...

The science fiction saga that explores the aftermath of Earth's most brutal conflict starts here! For ten years the alien invaders have laid waste to our planet, but now they've vanished, leaving the survivors with two questions--"Where did the 'bugs' go?" and "Where does humanity go from here?"

It's big existential questions, edge-of-your-seat alien-fueled intrigue, and epic thrills in this collection of the original seven installments of Resurrection! (Includes issues 1-6, plus the 2008 Annual.)

Resurrection: The Insurgent Edition collects all of the black-and-white Resurrection material in conjunction with the launch of the new full color ongoing series that's now in development as a major motion picture with Universal Studios. Created by noted writer and producer Marc Guggenheim (TV's Eli Stone, Marvel's Amazing Spider-Man) and featuring moody art from newcomers David Dumeer and Douglas Dabbs, this book picks up where all the other alien invasion stories end.

"Remember the very first alien invasion pic you saw? Me too. Remember wondering what happened after all the aliens left? Me either. Luckily, Marc Guggenheim did. Real fun and real emotion to get your sci-fi going."

-Brad Meltzer, best selling author of The Book of Lies and Justice League

"An eerily relevant twist on the alien invasion genre, Resurrection asks what happens to society after all the institutions we once relied on are torn asunder. A very cool story, beautifully drawn. Worth your attention."

- Brian K. Vaughan, co-creator of Y: The Last Man & Ex Machina
