No sooner had Byron Crawford's first book, Crawford's Journal, sold out than his readers began asking when there would be a sequel. In Kentucky Stories they will find a rich patchwork of subjects that touch the heart, soul and funny bone of Kentucky. Although this collection contains only a handful of the more than 2,000 columns he has written for the Courier-Journal to date, they reflect Byron's deep attachment to his home state and his genuine affection for its people.
