The Hip Hop Music History book describes and analyzes the development of Hip Hop music on the West Coast with major impact in the on the West Coast Area over the past thirty (30+) years. It provides a profile of the artist's first works and a glimpse into their musical career, along with supporting discography of the first work recorded and released by the artist. There is also a comparative analysis of the various eras of the development of Hip Hop music on the West Coast Area. As a BONUS, I have included Hip Hop Trivial, which includes a National Listing of female rappers in the impacted areas, in sequence, based upon their first recorded and released work in Hip Hop music and "Did You Know?" in Hip Hop. Finally, the book provides the economic impact of Hip Hop music on the West Coast Area by number of albums sold, collectively, by all of the Hip Hop artists on the West Coast over the past thirty (30+) years.
