You Get What You Believe!

Have you been looking for the secret to a life of happiness and abundance? Do you feel like no matter what you try or what you read your life just stays the same ~ or worse, feels like it is falling apart? You're not alone! There is a vital key to creating abundance that most people never tell you. Until you know what it is, your efforts will be wasted.

You could spend years telling yourself to think happy thoughts and visualize abundance without success. Even the classic books about abundance, like Think and Grow Rich and The Master Key System have left this out. In order for you to be successful in creating the life of your dreams you need to have all the information on how to do it.

If your efforts have left you frustrated and confused, relax. We're about to get to the truth of what's been hidden. In fact, you may feel like someone just turned on the lights instead of leaving you fumbling around in the dark! Finally you will be able to see your way through and have clear direction on creating that life you so yearn for. This is not just an abundance book, it is much more if you take the steps necessary to heal your past. Financial freedom, attracting wealth and abundant living are surprisingly simple to attain if you know what to do.

When I dedicated the year 2012 to healing myself little did I know that it would lead to the deep understanding that I share with you in this book. I discovered an unseen force at work in our lives pulling us away from our heart's desires. It discreetly infests our thinking and manipulates our actions away from success. It keeps us on the tread mill of life, spinning the past over and over again.

I am so grateful that my journey led me to the life-changing discovery that I share with you in this book. If it was possible to simply think and grow rich, I am sure more of us would have figured it out. We're an intelligent species after all, and who doesn't want to be rich? There is a missing link between your thoughts and your desires that impacts every detail of your life. And it determines success or failure in your ability to make your dreams come true.

Like many great discoveries, I wasn't searching for this information, it found me. My awareness around beliefs came about as an unexpected benefit of my healing work. In my journey I was led to the deep understanding that you get what you believe. I had seen hints of this before, like the statement 'believing is seeing', but I didn't have the deep understanding of how significant our beliefs are.

Every action we take comes from an underlying belief. We can wish for money and joy and happiness for 100 years and never find it if we don't understand the significance of what I share with you here.

This work has made such a difference in my life that I want to share it with you so we can all find the life of our dreams. I can relate to the challenges that many people face in the world today. I was middle aged and unemployed at the time of starting this work. I am now living a life of ease and abundance less than two years later using this material.

If you are ready to learn the missing key to an abundant life read on. If you are not happy with your life it is time to discover how to change it. Until you really understand the impact of your beliefs you won't know how to create your dreams.

Take this journey of discovery with me. Learn how to find the beliefs that are holding you back and how to release them. Only then will you start living the life that you so yearn for. And you deserve it. You simply don't know what is holding you back. I do and I am happy to share it with you. May we all grow and prosper!
