The gods are once more at war.

On earth, beastgods are fighting beastgods, and tearing up the earth in the process. Up above, the Glorious host of the Cloud, defender of Paradise, is preparing to drive Onigon and his followers from Paradise. Onigon, in the meantime, still searches for the goddess Kinra, for only with her death can he triumph and claim for himself the Blessed Seat and title of Highest.

But there are others also who seek the fallen goddess.

Meanwhile, the sons of men carry on with their lives, toiling and caring, loving and warring, scheming and praying. But in their midst, unbeknown to them, is one in whom entwines the fate of Paradise and Earth: the young, heavenborn woman, Natoya.

After escaping her enemies in Zai Rock, Natoya mysteriously found herself stranded in the distant southern lands, so far away from her home. In order to return to her people, she must overcome great odds, including fleeing a treacherous king, fighting a god and entering a contest forbidden to women— incurring thereby the wrath of gods and men.
