Draya is at rock bottom. She's flat broke, and with no steady paycheck, she's about to get evicted in the middle of winter. With no friends or family to turn to for help, all she can do is remain on the path she's on and hope that her happily ever after will come. Enter Mr. Leo Ellis. He's rich, charismatic, and sexy as hell- and he only has eyes for her. White men usually aren't her thing, but something about this man just makes her mocha skin blush with heat every time she sees him. He will stop at nothing until he has all of her- and he is not a man who is used to hearing the word no. In order for that to hap-pen, Draya will have to give up everything about her old life. As danger and scandals plague them, she has to wonder: is a chance with this man worth the risk of sacrificing everything she's worked for?
