Not Child's Play: An Anthology on Brother-Sister Incest Risa Shaw

Not Child's Play is the first collection ever dedicated to the important topic of women survivors of incest perpetrated by their brothers. This unprecedented book is a collection of short stories, poetry, prose and art (black and white and color) by 35 women from the United States, Canada and England, presented in an extraordinarily courageous way.

This anthology is immensely readable, uplifting and empowering. This book not only provides a life line for survivors, but is also essential reading for counselors and therapists, the families of the survivors, those in women studies, sociology and psychology, and those who work with teens.
