The Aesthetics of James Joyce Jacques Aubert

"Readers who missed the 1973 French edition of this book will be surprised and delighted with the author's review of source-figures behind Joyce's aesthetics. Some of this material, though familiar in general, is now traced with unprecedented depth and sophistication; some of it is new; and the implicit account of Joyce's artistic development is invaluable, a solid and brilliant achievement."--Mary T. Reynolds, James Joyce Literary Supplement.
