Why Choose This Book

The love story of Queen Elizabeth II and her consort Prince Philip is the true stuff of fairytale. Theirs was not an arranged marriage but a love match. This book will show you a love story that transcended the times and remained strong unto this day.

What's Inside

The Queen and her Consort are celebrities in their own right, and their lives have always had that quality that made them interesting for ordinary people. Every little thing about them was a thing of wonder, and you'll be surprised to know:

- How old Elizabeth was when she fell in love with a dashing young man named Philip
- How they nurtured their relationship amid the war and in their separation as they go about their duties
- Why Philip gave up his naval career
- The circumstances that led to Elizabeth being the Queen, and what it meant for her and Philip
- The last-minute glitches that occurred on the day of the couple's highly publicized wedding
- Why it was difficult for Philip to find his own role within the royal family
- Why the House of Windsor remained as it is and not the House of Mountbatten-Windsor following the couple's wedding, and what the Queen did as a compromise for her husband
- The problems they encountered as a married couple, and how their marriage remained intact when those of their children's crumbled...
