Snapshots is a portrait of the Mahoneys, which begins in 1997, when Kate, Patty, Sean, and Nora, all grown, come home for Christmas to the family's summer house on the Jersey Shore. Norris's innovative novel then works deftly backwards in time, telling the story of their past twenty-five years as a family, filling in the rich, deep hues of the life that has shaped their relationships, showing his readers how the Mahoneys came to be who they are.
