"Years ago I was as naive as you are, Mr. Bryce; I believed I could create a superior community by inhabiting it with superior people, excluding all lesser types. I took my time, meticulously selecting the right tenants, ideal specimens whose presence only made more splendid the paradise I had conceived for them alone. And I would have accomplished my goal--establishing a Heaven on earth--if not for the stubbornness of the low, who, like vermin do, nibbled at the walls of my kingdom until it crumbled to the ground. I no longer have time to be meticulous, Mr. Bryce--besides, both older and wiser, my goals are different now. Creation is a fantasy of my youth; today I care only about destruction."

In this prequel to 2006's Karma Incarnate, the Foolkiller returns thirty years younger--more potent, more lethal--to face his greatest nemesis, a billionaire madman who's purchased most of Harlem intending to destroy it. Aided by criminal overlord Pretty Tony, a pair of assassins, and a mysterious pill responsible for the deaths of hundreds--soon to be thousands!--a maniac will annihilate an entire community unless the Foolkiller stops him, saving both Harlem and himself.
