Early Negro Education in West Virginia Carter Godwin Woodson

Carter Godwin Woodson (1875 – 1950) was an African-American historian, author, journalist and the founder of the Association for the Study of African American Life and History. Woodson was one of the first scholars to study African-American history. A founder of The Journal of Negro History in 1915, Woodson has been cited as the father of black history. In February 1926 he announced the celebration of "Negro History Week", considered the precursor of Black History Month.

This book originally published in 1921 has been reformatted for the Kindle and may contain an occasional defect from the original publication or from the reformatting.
